

EAA Donates to Industry Causes

EAA board members presented $1000 in donations to both the Consumer Aerosol Product Council and the Alliance for Consumer Education while attending the Annual CSPA meeting in December. Said outgoing EAA President, Pete Erickson, Aptar, about EAA's support of ACE, "We at the Eastern Aerosol Association are proud of our relationship with the Alliance for Consumer Education (ACE). Their work to bring awareness to the dangers of inhalation abuse is responsible for saving the lives of those who otherwise would not know about the dangers. There is still a lot to be done to further spread the knowledge and to prevent further tragedy. I'm amazed at the twitter feeds I get from ACE (follow ACE at @consumered) that demonstrate the continued ignorance and desperation that occurs when people choose to inhale. The EAA donates annually to the efforts of ACE and we encourage all associated with our industry to do likewise."

Joe Bowen, President CAPCO (L) is presented with a donation from the Eastern Aerosol Association by Dennis Smith, Treasurer. EAA annually supports CAPCO's efforts to provide accurate information about aerosol products to consumers, the media and teachers.

Gathering to present a donation to ACE are (L to R) EAA board members Bob Daria, Lindal Group; Dennis Smith, Precise Packaging; Colleen Creighton, ACE; Cindy Hundley, Spray Technology; Ken Wanner, Formulated Solutions and Qeshia Bradley, ACE.

Board notes.....

Nyarady new President

At the January 10 meeting of the EAA Board of Directors, the following Officers were elected to two year terms. Chris Nyarady, Montebello Packaging (President), Bob Flaherty, American Spraytech (Vice President), Dennis Smith, Precise Packaging (Treasurer) and Pete Erickson, Aptar (Secretary). The following Trustees were elected to a new three year term: Bob Daria, Lindal; Cindy Hundley, Spray Technology; Rey Ordiales, Colgate; and Jay Tourigny, MicroCare.

2012 Golf Outing

The date is set for Tuesday August 7, 2012 at Crystal Springs. Golf committee chair Dennis Smith welcomed new committee members Bill Geisel, Exal; Kevin O'Connor, Aptar; and Doug Bacile, Spray Technology who are hard at work planning for another great outing this summer!

Minor League Baseball Promotion

The Board voted to continue its promotion at the Rock Cats minor league baseball park in CT this coming season. Smith reported that the Rock Cats attendance was 380,000 in 2011 while George Buckland added that exposure to EAA's RiverSharks sign in Camden, NJ was about 350,000 people last season. The Board agreed to hold an EAA day at the Rock Cats in 2012; the date will be announced shortly. EAA is also exploring sponsorship options at the RiverSharks for the upcoming season.

Aerosol Industry Liaison Committee

George Buckland provided a very thorough recap of the recent meeting that was held during CSPA's annual meeting, at which, Cindy Hundley, representing Spray, was also in attendance. The next step is the development of a website - a relatively low cost first step to get the mission moving forward. All regionals have been asked to contribute something to demonstrate their willingness to be involved, but understanding that any contribution now does not tie anyone in to anything beyond that. The Board voted to approve a $1,000 contribution to this effort. A letter to John Davis, President, WAIB will be sent communicating EAA's involvement and commitment to at least this stage of the initiative.
